

2010 High School Community Service Ambassador Award

You are invited to nominate Orange Community Education & Recreation's first High School Community Service Ambassadors! The Community Service Ambassador Award will recognize one high school girl and one high school boy who has demonstrated exemplary leadership in volunteer service on behalf of the greater Orange communities and surrounding local area.

Nominations will be reviewed and selected by a panel of local community leaders and Orange Community Education & Recreation Commission members. Recipients of the 2010 Community Service Ambassador Award will be formally announced and recognized at the 32nd Orange Jubilee opening ceremony on Friday, May 21 at 6:30pm and will be honored by the entire community at the Orange Jubilee's grand finale fireworks show on Saturday, May 22 at 9:40pm in the Orange High School Stadium.

- Nominees must be residents of the greater Orange School District and must currently be in grades 9 through 12.
- Nominations should include specific information on nominee's community service activities and how that service has made a positive difference for the community.
- Nominations must be received no later than May 14, 2010.
